

The Worshipful Company of Fletchers' Disability Championships 2022

Further to my communication this morning telling everyone the Disability champs will still be going ahead, please find the guidance for the day below. This information has been sent to all athletes attending.

Following the death of HRH Queen Elizabeth II please find further information laid out below as we give our respects to Her Majesty. We ask for your cooperation and understanding at this time.

Archery GB will continue to host the events in the coming days and weeks and we are following the publication National Mourning Guidance.

Archers/ coaches and attendees

Archery GB's online communication channels will be limited during this time and therefore we ask that you do not share pictures, videos etc of the shoot until after the mourning period.

Music at the event

There will be no music played during the event

Minute silence

We will have a minutes silence at 9am before the start of practice.

Award ceremony

We will not have a full awards ceremony awards at the end of the day. The award ceremonies will be through the afternoon awarded to the respective groups who have finished their matches. We will schedule these during lunch time and display them

Media

As mentioned above, Archery GB will not be posting any winners information, articles or pictures etc until after the 10 day mourning period.

Results

The result will not be live on ianseo but the final result will be published at the end of the day. We will post all results throughout the day on the field.

Mark of respect

Archery GB staff will be wearing black armbands, please do wear one if you have one.
