Prizes:

The competition consists of three rounds. The first three competitors in each category will be awarded in each individual round. After the third round, the overall winners of each category will be awarded. The winner of each category will be the archer with the highest total qualification score accumulated across the individual rounds of the competition. In the event of a tie, the winner will be the archer with the highest score achieved in a single round. If the score is still tied, the winner will be decided by a coin toss. Participation in all three rounds is not required to qualify for the overall category title. The archer achieving the highest total qualification score across all categories and divisions will receive the main prize of the competition – the „Petržalská Placka".

In the event of a tie, the winner will be the archer with the highest score achieved in a single round. If the score is still tied, the winner will be decided by a coin toss. The overall results of the competition will be determined during the third and final round.

The award of the overall category title and the „Petržalská Placka" is conditional upon the participation of at least one active archer from the club represented by the awarded archer. (An active archer is defined as an archer who: competes in the final round, and attends the award ceremony).
